Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 17, 2018, the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) provided Quantum Corporation (the “Company”) an extension through January 15, 2019 (the “Compliance Deadline”) to file its late Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2018 (the “2018 Form 10-K”), and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended December 31, 2017 and June 30, 2018 (collectively, the “Late Reports”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).

While the Company has made significant progress toward completing its Late Reports, the Company has determined that it will be unable to file the Late Reports by the Compliance Deadline or by February 15, 2019 and informed the NYSE of its determination.

Following the Company informing the NYSE of its determination, the NYSE announced the suspension of trading of the Company’s common stock due to non-compliance with Section 802.01E of the NYSE’s Listed Company Manual, effective at the opening of trading today, and announced that it was initiating proceedings to delist the Company’s common stock. As a result of the suspension, the Company expects that its shares of common stock will begin trading on January 16, 2019 under the symbol “QMCO” on the OTC Pink, which is operated by OTC Markets Group Inc.

The Company continues to operate its business as usual. Additionally, the NYSE decision does not affect the Company’s SEC reporting requirements and does not conflict with or cause an event of default under any of the Company’s debt or other material agreements. The Company intends to file its Late Reports as quickly as possible.

On January 15, 2019, the Company issued a press release regarding the NYSE’s delisting determination, a copy of which is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking” statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements. The Company advises caution in reliance on forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include, without limitation, the Company’s expectations that its shares are expected to trade on the OTC Pink and that the Company intends to file its Late Reports as soon as possible. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause Quantum’s actual results to differ materially from those implied by the forward-looking statement. More detailed information about these risk factors, and additional risk factors, are set forth in Quantum’s periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, those risks and uncertainties listed in the section entitled “Risk Factors,” in Quantum’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 9, 2017. All forward-looking statements in this public announcement are based on information available to Quantum as of the date of this announcement. Quantum expressly disclaims any obligation to update or alter its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.

Quantum Corporation Provides Update on NYSE Delisting

SAN JOSE, Calif. — January 15, 2019 — Quantum Corp. (NYSE: QTM) today announced that the Company received notification from the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) of its determination to commence proceedings to delist the Company’s common stock. The determination to commence the delisting proceeding is a result of the Company requiring more time to become current in filing its late annual and quarterly reports, including its financial statements, with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), as described in more detail in its Form 8-K filed with the SEC on September 14, 2018 and its press release issued on December 28, 2018. Trading in the Company’s common stock on the NYSE will be suspended immediately.

While Quantum has made significant progress toward completing its late reports, the Company informed the NYSE that it would not become current with its SEC periodic reporting by February 15, 2019, the maximum allowable period under Section 802.01E of the NYSE’s Listed Company Manual.

As a result of the delisting, the Company expects its shares of common stock will begin trading on January 16, 2019 under the symbol “QMCO” on the OTC Pink, which is operated by OTC Markets Group Inc.

“We believe that Quantum’s delisting does not reflect on the financial health of the Company, which, as indicated by our recently announced refinancing, continues to improve,” said Jamie Lerner, Quantum’s Chairman and CEO. “We will work diligently to complete our required filings and resolve our delisting as quickly as possible.”
